DENISE COTE, District Judge:

After reviewing the parties' letters of July 21 and July 22, 2021, including Exhibit C to the corporate defendants' letter of July 21, the plaintiff has not adequately explained the need for discovery beyond that to which the corporate defendants already consent in their letter July 21.

Additionally, production would be exceedingly burdensome, defendants having already engaged in fulsome fact discovery in the underlying litigation. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that the plaintiff's July 21 requests for discovery to which the defendants have not consented are denied.

Dated: New York, New York
July 26, 2021
